NOTE: The majority of these listings have expertise in multiple areas. Don't hesitate to contact them to initiate discussions and ask for referrals if you're uncertain. All of these resources typically fall under a general classification of Consumer Financial Services expertise which includes arbitration, Truth-in-Lending Act, acquisition due diligence, stored value cards, receivable pools, regulatory compliance and more.

IN MANY CASES these resources will provide a discount for our clients. Be certain to tell them you got their contact info from The Trihouse Training Manuals; "The guys who wrote the book." Give it a try! We receive zip but it just may save you some money :o)
